

Recreational fishing licences are available for purchase at licence issuers or online at albertarelm.com. To buy a special walleye licence online that requires a tag(s), you must have a prenumbered 10-digit Government of Alberta paper tag and wire before you begin your purchase. Tags and wires are available free of charge at Fish and Wildlife District Offices (see page 24).

To buy a licence, you must have a WIN card (see side bar). All licence costs are subject to the Federal Goods and Services Tax (GST), which is not included to the costs listed below.

1 Sportfishing refers to angling (using a barbless hook and line), bowfishing, spearfishing and using a minnow trap, seine net or dip net to collect bait fish for non-commercial use.

2 A portion of the cost of each licence is distributed to:

- Alberta Conservation Association to fund the Fisheries Habitat Development Program, the Fisheries Management Enhancement Program and the Enhanced Fish Stocking Program;
- General Revenue; and
- IBM to finance the administration of the automated licensing system.

3 All residents of Canada are eligible to buy a Resident Sportfishing Licence. A resident is a person who has his or her only or primary residence in Canada and

- is a Canadian citizen or is admitted to permanent residence in Canada, or
- has lived in Canada for the immediately preceding 12-month period.

An Alberta resident is a person who is a resident of Canada and has their only or primary residence in Alberta.

4 A person who is not a resident of Canada and who is age 16 or older must hold a valid Non-Resident Sportfishing Licence.

5 Special Fish Harvest Licences for Walleye (Class A), Walleye (Class B) and Walleye (Class C) are available only through a draw, see page 16.

Lost/destroyed licences – licences purchased at a licence issuer can be reprinted at any licence issuer for a $2.00 fee. Licences purchased online can be reprinted online at no charge.

Lost/destroyed tags – Tags issued by a licence issuer can be reprinted at any licence issuer for a $4.00 fee. A replacement tag(s) for a licence purchased online can be replaced at no charge. You are required to bring your licence to a district office. In both cases, you must complete a statutory declaration to authorize the replacement at a Fish and Wildlife Division office (see page 24).

RECREATIONAL LICENSING SYSTEM

Recreational fishing and hunting licences are sold online or through licence issuers. A list of licence issuers is available at mywildalberta.com. Go to albertarelm.com to purchase your licence or WIN card online.

WIN Cards

Anglers and hunters must have a Wildlife Identification Number (WiN) before purchasing any licence or Wildlife Certificate. The cost is $8.00 and is valid for 5 years.

At the time of your WiN purchase, you will receive a permanent 10-digit WiN. A permanent plastic WiN card will be mailed within six weeks.

Renewal of Expired WiNs

When your WiN expires, you will be required to renew your WiN prior to buying a licence. A WiN renewal costs $8.00 and is valid for five years.

A new plastic WiN card with your new expiry date will be mailed out.

Please verify the personal information shown on your WiN renewal receipt and provide information updates to the licence Issuers or online at albertarelm.com. A correct address and phone number is important to ensure that you receive your new WiN Card.

Sportfishing Licences

- Your sportfishing licence must be carried at all times when sportfishing or transporting fish.
- Review your licence at the time of purchase and ensure all information is correct.
- Information changes can be provided to the licence issuer or updated online at albertarelm.com

Frequently Asked Questions
